Police K-9 Executive Underwriting Sponsorship

The Hometown Foundation's Police K-9 Initiative is an established program. This program purchases dogs for Police K-9 units so they can be trained and outfitted police officers. Many of Police K-9 units don't have the funds or means to make this possible. To date, The Hometown Foundation has provided five dogs for Police K-9 units spanning from New York City and Connecticut all the way out to New Mexico. These K-9s have been trained for suspect apprehension, explosive and narcotic detection, and tracking.
